TAG DAY TOMORROW

JEWISH RELIEF COMMITTEE HAS ARRANGED FINE STREET PROGRAM WITH PARADE

Everybody will be tagged tomorrow. No one will escape. Be prepared for one of the most persistent and agreeable assaults on the public pocket that Glendale has ever experienced. All the feminine youth and beauty of the city has been enlisted in the flying corps that will make direct and frontal assaults on the strongest financial entrenchments. There will be no escape, nor is there any means known to human wit by which such an assault can be stayed. It is well to be prepared to yield the trenches at once. No excuse will be received. No evasion, nor equivocation, nor verbal jugglery will suffice to get rid of these assaults. You may as well yield at once and be done with it.

Precisely at 3 p. m. a striking parade will start from the High school. It will proceed to Brand boulevard, to Broadway, to Glendale avenue and thence back to the High school. All citizens who have autos are asked to fill them with their friends and to join the parade. This is very necessary as it is important for Glendale to make a good showing on this occasion. The Hearst Vitagraph Film company will have a special camera corps in the streets taking scenes of the doings. If you want to be on the films when they are exhibited in the middle west and in the eastern states get into your auto tomorrow, decorate it and collect as many happy people as you can and join the procession. This film will be one of the Hearst Vitagraph News films sent all over the United States. Let your friends in other states get a glimpse of Glendale's fine February weather.

The Glendale Fire department will give an exhibition of its work. Go to the High School and see the fire protectors in full action.

Do not fail to witness the Kalem company's great contribution to the features of the day. One of the strong companies of that enterprising firm will enact a thrilling scene in front of the High school. For the honor of Glendale and for the sake of the good advertising the city is going to get out of this celebration be out tomorrow to see all the fun and to help the worthy cause for which this is being done. Everybody is helping. Don't be left out in the cold.

All the money collected for Jewish relief goes to the "Central Committee for the Relief of the Jewish Sufferers Through the War.' This committee is acting in conjunction with the American Jewish Relief committee. The officials of the Jewish Relief committee are such well-known New York men as Louis Marshal, chairman; Felix H. Warburg, treasurer, and Cyrus L. Sulzberg, secretary. The officials of the Central Relief committee are Leon Kamaiky, chairman; Harry Fischel, treasurer; Albert Lucas, secretary. All the funds are handled through these responsible committees with the assistance of the United States ambassadors and consuls in the foreign lands where the relief is needed.

Do not fail to be on the streets tomorrow. Let Glendale make a showing in the film and in the subscription lists.

WEBB-HENRY NUPTIALS

The home of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Henry of 118 E. Park avenue, Tropico, was the scene of a beautiful spring wedding Tuesday evening, Feb. 15, when Rev. B. Dudley Snudden of the First Methodist church of Glendale united the lives of their daughter, Miss Marian R. Henry, and Mr. Henry Wallace Webb of Los Angeles.

The house was most beautifully decorated for the occasion, Japanese cherry blossoms in profusion with hanging baskets of pink peach blossoms lent a spring-like atmosphere to the scene. About a hundred friends of the popular young couple had been invited to witness the taking of their marriage vows. In the library an altar of calla lilies, pink blossoms and ferns had been erected and it was here that the officiating minister met the prospective bride and groom, attended by Miss Mary S. Henry, sister of the bride, and Mr. Claude Morgan, a near friend of the groom.

Miss Henry made a charming bride in her white brocaded crepe de chine gown with white lace veil caught up with orange blossoms and a bride's shower bouquet of white blossoms. Her bridesmaid wore white silk with a touch of pink. Rev. Snudden used the impressive ring ceremony in uniting this young couple.

Following the ceremony and congratulations, the dainty wedding supper was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Webb will be at home to their friends on Echo Park avenue, Los Angeles, where they have a pretty bungalow all furnished to receive them. Many beautiful and useful gifts were received that will find places in the new home. The many Glendale and Tropico friends of this popular girl will wish her a happy married life and regret her departure from their midst.

SCHOOL AND CAMPUS

HIGH SCHOOL WINS AT TENNIS —TRACK MEET POSTPONED —BASEBALL LEAGUE

The big event of the school year will take place Thursday afternoon and evening and Friday evening when the High school will present its "Variety Show."

"The Economical Boomerang," a delightful little skit, will be given under the direction of Miss Leroy, oral expression teacher and dramatic coach. The Boys' Glee club will give a splendid stunt, which is most decidedly clever and original.

Mr. Ferguson and the committee, consisting of Mary Jane Evans, Vera Bayard, Ernestine Lyons, Fred Dodge and Marion Lehman, surely deserve a great deal of credit for their splendid work. Tickets have been selling very rapidly and every performance will undoubtedly have a full house.

Tennis Victory

"Bill" Balthis, Carlton West, Lehman Crandall and Ed Heacock won a dual tournament last Saturday from Monrovia High by the score of 16 to 4. All the fellows were in splendid form and the tournament was simply a walkaway for Glendale. Next Saturday the same team will go to Redondo where they expect to take another victory for Glendale.

Interclass Track

The interclass track meet has been postponed until the last week of February on account of the "vaudeville." Harry Glazier and some of the other Juniors say that no other class of 1917 could come anywhere near winning. But we must remember that the Seniors won the basketball championship contrary to all the Juniors' previous "dope" on the subject.

Baseball League

Glendale's schedule in the Central baseball league is as follows:

March 25, with Alhambra at Alhambra.

April 1, with South Paadena at Glendale.

April 8, with Covina at Covina.

April 15, with Monrovia at Glendale.

April 22, with Harvard at Harvard.

April 29, with Harvard at Glendale.

May 6, with Covina at Glendale.

May 13, with Monrovia at Monrovia.

May 20, with South Paadena at South Paadena.

May 27, with Alhambra at Glendale.

CONVERTED BANDIT IN CHURCH

Al Jennings, the bandit and holdup man, who made such a successful struggle to extricate himself from his criminal past, and who was converted under the ministry of the Rev. John Troy of the First Baptist church of Glendale, is at present doing excellent work as an evangelist in the Tabernacle Baptist church of Atlanta, Georgia. This church is the largest Baptist church in the south. The famous Rev. Len Broughton was pastor of this congregation at one time. Jennings is making good in his new profession. His appeal is direct and earnest and his stories of his old life and its evils have a strong fascination for the people. He has been the means of much good since his conversion.

ENTERTAINED THE DEACONS

Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Lane, 1017 Chestnut street, entertained the deacons of the Baptist church and their wives last Thursday evening at a very enjoyable party. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Fryer, Dr. and Mrs. Vanderhoof, Mr. and Mrs. Kendrick, Mr. and Mrs. Salisbury. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Lowinsky, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Cunningham, Miss Maud Salisbury, Mr. and Mrs. John Troy. The affair took the form of a reception to the Rev. John Troy, pastor of the church, and Mrs. Troy, who are on the eve of departure for New York. Mr. Lowinsky charmed the company with violin selections and Mrs. Clifford Cunningham with her songs.

HIGH SCHOOL STARS

BRILLIANT COMPANY WILL TICKLE AUDIENCE IN VARIETY SHOW

Thursday afternoon and evening and Friday night of this week are the dates of the High School Variety show. Impresario Ferguson comes forward with the statement that every act will be stellar, that every actor will prove a star, and that the audience will laugh until it weeps—and then laugh some more.

The program is essentially a laugh fest. No real serious acts were slated, for what's the use? Glendale people want fun. They are going to get it. Miss Terry, who is directing the farce, declares her production to be the most amusing she has ever undertaken. (Incidentally, the typewriting class became convulsed when they attempted to copy the parts.)

Then Mr. Joy, who is the commercial teacher, believes that his eight clever proteges will get the longest and loudest encore. In fact, the act is so good that Mr. Ferguson placed it close to the head of the bill. (To start a riot, he says.)

Then, there is Cecil Crandall with his violin and Miss Winifred Jones in a character piece, and Owen Dibbern and Dick Burk, unrivaled comedians. The school band, the orchestra under Mrs. Gibson's direction, Miss Fenton's burlesquers, including "Dainty Marie" Martin and—

What's the use? There is a score more taking part. Every one as good as the other. All Glendale people need to do is attend. It's a student show for the rest of the folks in the town. Be present. Prices will be only 25 and 35 cents the two nights and 15 and 25 cents at the special matinee.

Attention is specially called to the fact that a matinee will be given Thursday afternoon at 3:15 for the grammar schools. You are also reminded that any one may attend this performance who has a general admission ticket.

Under the chaperonage of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Faries, Messrs. Norman Badger, Arthur Hutchinson and Alex Badger, the "Four M" Boys' club of St. Mark's church, numbering 20 members, and their girl friends enjoyed a "hike" to Griffith Park on Sunday, partaking of a basket luncheon at noon. The "Naturalists" had the experience of assisting the girls in crossing newly ploughed fields and running water, the latter minus bridges of any sort. During the summer months the club is planning upon taking many of these delightful outings into the hills and canyons.

Rev. W. E. Edmonds of the First Presbyterian church goes to Boyle Heights this evening to give an address on Evangelism at the Boyle Heights Presbyterian church. The meeting is one of a series of conferences in the Los Angeles Presbytery.

LOCAL TEAM LOSES

WHITTIER COLLEGE BASKETBALL TEAM BEATS GLENDALE ATHLETICS 29-25

Those who witnessed the league game between Glendale and Whittier college were treated to as fine an exhibition of basketball as they could have desired to see. Both teams were in excellent condition and played a clever and clean game throughout. Throughout the game it was apparent that the Whittier team was more practiced in the technical tricks of the game than Glendale and was able to take advantage of this knowledge to secure various goals. In point of dash, individual cleverness and coolness the Glendale team showed to advantage.

In the first half Whittier by quick and accurate throwing secured a number of field goals and also fouls and the clever play and determination of Glendale were not equal to the task of wiping out that handicap which increased as the first half continued, and brought Whittier out at the half with a score of 15 to 9 to their credit.

In the second half of the game Glendale showed quite remarkable speed and accuracy. There was rather an increase of speed than otherwise, while the Whittier team showed a slight slowing down, notwithstanding the fact that they played alternate men in the position of guard. Glendale rapidly cut down the lead that Whittier had gained and as the game proceeded it became manifest that all that was necessary for Glendale was to play a little more together in order to beat their opponents.

The game closed with Whittier in the lead 29 to 25. It is noticeable, however, that the number of field goals was the same on each side—10. That indicates what was indeed manifest through the whole game—that the Whittier college team was more skilled in taking advantage of the technical points of the game than was Glendale. The Whittier team has been playing together for four years and each man knows the other and his capabilities. There is never any hesitation on the part of any one of them. When a man is wanted in a particular place he is there.

The Glendale team, on the other hand, has been together only one year and during part of that time had no gymnasium in which to practice. It was manifest to anyone familiar with gymnasiums that the makeshift now being used is in no way adequate to the wants of the team. The floor is rough and the fittings meager.

Glendale should do something to remedy these conditions. The team is a credit to the city. The young men who compose it are fine, clean young Americans. They are all young men who are active in business and a credit to the city. Those who play basketball are certainly not wasting their time in unworthy pursuits. This game demands the very best that is in a young man. His energy is called upon every moment. Not only must he be active in muscle but also in mind. It is a game that demands the best type of young man.

Besides, the game is doing a great deal to advertise Glendale. Every morning after such a game as that of last night the name of Glendale is on the lips of thousands who would otherwise never hear of this place. It is also advertising of the right kind. The team deserves the support of the community and should get it. The citizens should co-operate with the club in securing proper accommodations for the team and in encouraging them in every way.

It may be said that Glendale did well to hold Whittier college to a score of 29-25. The Whittier boys are the crack team of the league and have a national standing. Stillwell of Los Angeles, as referee, did excellent unbiased work.

Friday, Feb. 18, Glendale plays the Whittier Crescents at Glendale. This should be a good game and Glendale may be expected to win it. From this point onward the Glendale team should also win the majority of the games and should land well up in the league.

Following was the lineup Tuesday night:

Glendale—Bidwell and Littell, forwards; Taylor, center; Farner and Stone, guards.

Whittier College—Finch and Butler, forwards; McBurney, center; Sharpless, Chambers and Cox, guards.

WEATHER FORECAST—Fair and cooler tonight and Thursday; north winds veering to northwest.

VALENTINE PARTY

The L. S. class of boys proved themselves more than able to shoulder the responsibilities of hosts when they entertained the J. O. C. class of girls at a Valentine party Saturday evening. The party, which by the way was one of the most delightful affairs of the Valentine season, was held in the young people's room of the West Glendale Methodist church. The room was artistically decorated with hearts and other symbols suggestive of Saint Valentine and the god of Love. Partners for the evening were found by means of corresponding numbered hearts. Many lively games were enjoyed by both old and young during the all too short evening. Many of the games and other amusements brought back happy memories of days gone by to the hearts of the older members of the jolly crowd. At the close of the evening a delicious supper was served in true Valentine style by the boys, after which a postoffice was opened and valentines galore were distributed to their respective owners by the postmaster for the evening, who was none other than Mr. Eugene Moore.

A guest was brought by each member of the two classes, but the special guests were the Rev. and Mrs. H. J. Hartsell, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Henderson, Mrs. Hilbert and Miss Zella Keim, teacher of the J. O. C.'s. The other guests and class members were the Misses Marjorie Singleton, Lucille Woods, Elmar Caywood, Helen Brinkoff, Mildred Elliott, Elizabeth Cadd and Irene Jones; Messrs. Raymond Cleeland, Eugene Moore, Pierre Hartsell, Walter Bott, Frank Churchill, David Hicks, Master Jack Hilbert and the boys' teacher, Mr. J. P. Hilbert.

ON ST. VALENTINE'S

In a particularly attractive setting of greenery, hearts and red carnations, about 60 members of the Christian church spent a decidedly pleasant evening on Monday in the church bungalow, at which time the ladies entertained complimentary to the gentlemen.

Among the many amusing happenings of the evening was the reading of "self" description written upon hearts, those present being requested to guess to whom it belonged. Following the evening of music and games a delicious repast was served at tables gay with hearts and flowers of red and as nearly as possible the menu was carried out in Valentine suggestions.

AT THE BOSSERMAN HOME

The Rector's Guild of St. Mark's Episcopal church gave a delightful reception at the Leroy W. Bosserman home, 814 South Central avenue, on Tuesday evening, during the hours of 8 and 10 o'clock. About 60 guests were in attendance. The reception rooms were brilliant in pink Enchantress carnations, ferns and flowering acacia, and in the dining room, where an elaborate buffet supper was served, there was an exquisite motif developed in pink roses and natural foliage. During the evening a short and most pleasing program was given, the church choir singing two selections, while Miss Gertrude Champlain, the talented pianist, delighted with selection and encore. Mrs. Mary Cable gave readings in her usual charming manner.

The unbonneted ladies assisting Mrs. Bosserman, the president of the Rector's Guild, included Mrs. W. J. Pierce, Mrs. W. E. Hewitt, Mrs. J. S. Hayward, Mrs. Albert D. Pearce, Mrs. Wm. S. Mr. and Mrs. Albert C. Read of 1456 West Broadway have as their guest for several days, Mr. Read's father, Mr. Chas. Read of Los Angeles.

This organization means business.

The officers elected are as follows: President, Mrs. May V. Kenyon; vice president, Mrs. Ellen M. Cooke; secretary, Mrs. Maude Bellue; treasurer, Mrs. Lydia W. Elliott; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Jennie M. Moore.

Miss Knepper's review on "Research Magnificent" by H. G. Wells was of great interest and a story full of good ideas. Miss Terry gave a pleasing review of poems by Tagore, a lover of child life and nature.

Mrs. Irene McReynold's subject was "The Poetry Magazine" and she read two poems by Edgar Lee Masters, one of Evolution and the other of the Underworld. The character of the poetry was just the opposite of the poems reviewed by Miss Knepper

The names of two new members were added, Mrs. J. C. Waite and Mrs. Vivian Webb.

Special guests of the afternoon were Mrs. H. R. Boyer and Mrs. Fourl, the latter recently admitted as a member of the Tuesday Afternoon club. Tonight the views will be specially appropriate for Wednesday evening, covering the land of the seven churches of Asia, also Nazareth, Cana, Shecem, Jacob's well, etc. The public is cordially invited.
